COMMUNITY DISASTER RELIEF CLINIC

On Thursday, July 20th, expert panelists come together at Southern University Law Center to help Louisiana flood victims answer important questions from the flood. Panel includes: Restore Louisiana Task Force, Jimmy Durbin who will explain the phases of the survey, local flood insurance expert to explain how to submit insurance claims and not miss the most important deadline, title specialists to assist with legal property issues, and Louisiana-based contractors who advocate against contractor fraud and provide licensed construction services for flood victims to rebuild.
